

The Michael Raymer Full Day Scholarship 2019

This scholarship is given by Susan Wood in memory of her brother, Michael Raymer, who passed away at the very young age of 28 in 1986. He was a talented and accomplished pianist. He attended Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore and then had the good fortune to study under Susan Starr in NYC. He continued his career in NYC performing in concerts and recording classical music for composers. He had a true passion for the Arts.
