

BARBARA INGRAM
SCHOOL FOR THE ARTS
FOUNDATION

DIRECT IMPACT

on Barbara Ingram School for the Arts:

- ♥ The Foundation efforts were to keep everyone safe as they returned back to school. Funding was provided for PBIS Enrichment Incentives and performances venues.
- ♥ Photo & Cinema - The Bisfa Film Society was established this year. The group studied and discussed over a dozen films to build analysis skills. Organized the year's capstone Do What Moves You free public event, where students from every discipline showcased their best works from the year.
- ♥ Computer Game Development & Animation - Every grade level produced fully-functioning games, stylized artworks, and compelling soundtracks that can be found on the cgda.us website.
- ♥ Creative Writing - All students and faculty attended the Association of Writers and Writing Programs(AWP) Conference 2021 (Virtual). This is the largest writers' conference in the country, interacting with professional writers and participating in college level programs.
- ♥ Dance - The entire Dance department participated in a Master Classes with hip hop performer, Neal Carter and the other with Broadway star Major Attaway.
- ♥ Instrumental and Vocal departments combined efforts on a Musicians Wellness Residency. This was done by inviting leading experts on performance-related stress.
- ♥ Theatre - This year students recorded auditions of themselves, becoming more aware of what the new reality of auditioning is. In addition the students launched a Living Newspaper and Reminiscence Theatre Project. They wrote screenplays for and performed real life historical events of real social significance.
- ♥ Visual Arts - Students created original cityscape acrylic paintings in a workshop taught by acrylic landscape expert David Bottini. Also, the outdoor 4th floor balcony was updated so that the students can see more, do more and create more in an open environment with natural light.

♥ ENRICHED ARTS CURRICULUM

Students are offered specialized instructional experiences beyond the traditional school program.

♥ PERFORMANCE OPPORTUNITIES

Students participate in more than 50 performances each year, which gives them a competitive edge when auditioning for institutions of higher education or professional engagements.
